Mondaino is located 30 km from Gabicce Mare and give us a unique path between culture and art, between flavors and aromas and ancient traditions and many smiles collected among the locals who welcome warmly and told his love and passion with his land.

Mondaino is a village that has less than 1,500 inhabitants, on the border between Marche and Romagna, once the scene of battles and clashes, protected by the fortified walls and the fortress that overlooks the town.

The history of this village is not only the medieval one and its origins go much further back in time, intertwining with myth and legend.

Legend linked to Diana, goddess of hunting, of the moonlight to chastity, who seems to have been worshiped in these hills. The name of the place, which evolved over the centuries (Mons Damarum-Monte Daino-Mondaino), probably refers to the deer, once present in large quantities in the woods of the area.

To visit: The Malatesta Fortress - The Paleontological Museum - The Portaia Tower - The Mosaic Laboratory - The Majolica Museum - The 6 Churches - The Porta di Sotto Mill - The Dimora L'Alboreto Theater - An event not to be missed in August, Il Palio del Daino
